Cookie Policy

This website uses cookies. Cookies are small text files that are used to make a user's experience more efficient. We use cookies to distinguish you from other users of this site, personalise content and ads, provide social media features, analyse our traffic, enable the site to personalise visits for your own needs and interests and retain your preferences for this site, not only for the duration of this visit, but also for any future visits to this site. This allows us to provide you with a good experience when using the site and allows us to improve it. Some cookies are placed by third party services that appear on our pages.

The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of this site. For all other types of cookies we need your permission. You can review the different types of cookies that we use, the consent that you have previously given, provide your consent and/or remove your consent at any time by accessing the Cookie Declaration (below) or the Cookie Settings in the bottom left of your screen.

A cookie is therefore created and stored on your computer with your preferences. If you have disabled cookies on your browser, or if your browser does not support cookies, then your preferences will not be retained. Please consult the relevant help files for your browser to determine how to enable and disable cookies.

You can also learn more about who we are, how you can contact us and how we process personal data in our Privacy Notice.
